Libertarian Party Statement of Principles

We, the members of the Libertarian party, support the following principles:

- 1. Each individual has the right to his or her own life...
2. Property rights are essential to the maintenance of those rights.
3. In order that these rights be respected, it is essential that no individual or group initiate the use of force or fraud against any other.
4. In order to bar the use of force or fraud from social relationships...
5. The only proper function of government whose powers must be constitutionally limited, are:
a) settling, according to objective laws, disputes among individuals...
b) providing protection from criminals;
c) providing protection from foreign invaders.
6. As a consequence of all the above, every individual -- as long as he or she respects the rights of others -- has the right to live as he or she alone sees fit, as a free trader on a free market.
